CRUX China Fund

B Inc USD ISIN: LU2382312994

a sub fund of CRUX Global Fund. Managed by FundRock Management Company S.A.

Objectives and Investment Policy

Objective:

In accordance with the general investment objective of the Fund, the investment objective of the Sub-Fund is to produce returns comprising capital growth over the long term through investment primarily in equity securities in China.

Benchmark : MSCI China All Share Index

The benchmark is a comparator against which the Fund's performance can be measured. The index has been chosen as the Fund's benchmark as it best reflects the scope of the Fund's investment policy. The benchmark is used solely to measure the Fund's performance and does not constrain the Fund's portfolio construction.

The Fund is actively managed. The Investment Manager has complete freedom in choosing which investments to buy, hold and sell in the Fund. The Fund's holdings may deviate significantly from the benchmark's constituents.

The benchmark is shown in the share class currency.

Investment Policy:

The Sub-Fund is actively managed. This means the Investment Manager is taking investment decisions with the intention of achieving the Sub-Fund's investment objective; this will include decisions regarding asset selection, regional allocation, sector views and overall level of exposure to the market.

The Sub-Fund seeks to achieve its objective primarily through investment in a diversified portfolio of equity securities of, or depositary receipts representing the shares of Chinese companies which are listed, traded or quoted on regulated markets worldwide with the aim of seeking exposure to growth investments over the long term. These investments include China A shares and transactions through Stock Connect. Chinese companies are companies that have their headquarters or a significant part of their operations in China. The Sub-Fund may also invest up to 10% of its net assets in cash and cash equivalents as well as other liquid financial assets, including inter alia bank deposits, time deposits, liquid money market instruments or investment grade debt securities issued by governments or supra-national organizations, and shares/units of money market funds, for distribution, redemption and for cash management purposes consistent with the investment objective and investment policy of the Sub-Fund. The Sub-Fund may, under exceptional circumstances (for example in an uncertain market environment), hold cash or cash equivalent in excess of 10%.

If the Investment Manager believes it to be beneficial to the Sub-Fund, some limited exposure to transferable securities other than Chinese companies may be undertaken up to 10% of its net asset value.

The Sub-Fund will have exposure to permissible People's Republic of China ("PRC") shares directly via the Stock Connect and/or through the FI Scheme or indirectly via investments in eligible undertakings for collective investment that invest primarily in permissible PRC shares and similar financial instruments where the underlying assets consist of securities issued by companies quoted on regulated markets in China, and/or the performance of which is linked to the performance of securities issued by companies quoted on regulated markets in China and/or securities issued by companies which in the Investment Manager's opinion have significant assets, business, production activities, trading or other business interests in China or the majority of whose value or income is linked to their Chinese business.

The Sub-Fund will not invest more than 10% of its net assets in units or shares of a single eligible undertakings for collective investment (including exchange trading funds).

The Sub-Fund may use exchange-traded financial derivative instruments for efficient portfolio management purposes (including hedging).

The Sub-Fund will not invest in securities financing transactions, such as securities lending transactions, repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements, buy-sell back or sell-buy back transactions for the purposes of efficient portfolio management, total return swaps or other OTC derivatives.

The Fund's base currency is British Pounds.

You can buy, sell or switch shares in the Fund on any day which banks are open for business in Luxembourg, also defined within the "Definitions" section of the Fund's prospectus. If we receive a request after 12.30pm CET, we deal with it on the next working day.

For this share class, the Fund distributes all available income in British Pounds.

Recommendation: This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 5 years.

Risk and Reward Profile

This indicator is based on synthetic data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.

The risk category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.

The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.

The Class B Shares above appear as a "6" on the scale. This is partly because the Fund invests in shares of companies, whose values tend to vary more widely. Additionally, the Class B Shares (depending on their currency denomination) may be affected by currency exchange rates.

The Fund does not provide its investors with any guarantee on performance, nor on monies invested in it. In addition to the risk captured by the indicator, the overall Fund value may be considerably affected by:

Counterparty Risk: The Fund could lose money if an entity with which it interacts becomes unwilling or unable to meet its obligations to the Fund.

Liquidity Risk: Certain securities could become hard to value, sell at a desired time and price, or cease to trade altogether.

Management Risk: Investment management techniques that have worked in normal market conditions could prove ineffective or detrimental at other times.

Exchange Rate Risk: Fluctuations in exchange rates may cause the value of your investment to rise or fall.

Emerging Markets: Investments in emerging markets may involve a risk that is higher than average due to the fact that the markets are less developed than other countries.

Single Country: the investments will concentrate on China and the Fund is exposed to the fluctuations of a single market and currency. The investments may become less liquid in certain market conditions and share price fluctuations may be greater.

China Risk: Several risks are linked to investments in Chinese equities including PRC political, economic and social risk, PRC legal system risk, PRC accounting and reporting standards risk, RMB currency risk, Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect and the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect risk, and China tax risk.

For full details of the Fund's risks please see "Section 4" of the Fund's prospectus.
