Bright spots during July included Sampo which raised guidance and showed why Nordic insurance is an attractive region for disciplined pricing and managing cost inflation. Billboard advertiser Stroer jumped on an earnings beat and kept guidance for the full year. Outsourcer Majorel reported accelerating growth and is progressing with the Sitel merger. Infineon saw strong growth and margins for microchips due to continued high demand and prices from industry and autos. Performance was held back by Schneider on recession concerns even though it raised guidance in July. Novo Nordisk slipped as its new drug Wegovy did not grow quite as fast as hoped in the quarter. In terms of transactions, we disposed of our residual position in SAP and topped up Stroer where we think the core business is under-valued given the likely valuations attached to fast-growing Statista and Asam.
